

Membership for Individuals

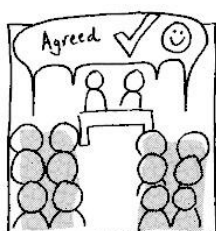

Anyone who wants to be part of making life better with people with learning disabilities and their families can join.

If you are a person with a learning disability, a family member or friend of someone with a learning disability, or a paid supporter or ally you can join Learning Disability England as an individual member.

Individual membership of Learning Disability England is an opportunity:

To be a part of the change Learning Disability England members are making together

To join our network of spokespeople, subject leads or partners on issues you care about or have worked on

To influence and inform the campaigning or key messages Learning Disability England uses in its work with partners, government or members

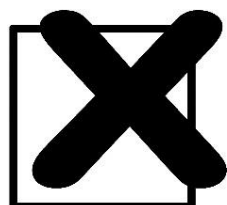

Members get:

Up to date information, news and resources including a weekly e mail newsletter

Access to events, meetings and conferences we run at a reduced rate or free where we can

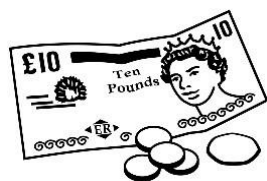

A say in what Learning Disability England does day to day

A formal vote on key decisions

What does it cost?

Individual membership costs £12 a year. If you can afford more (such as £25 or £50) because, for example you are in a well-paid job, please pay more to help with our work.
