

JORDAN SMITH

PEOPLE WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES

Hello Everyone!

My name is Jordan Smith, I am 31 years old from Colchester in Essex.

I have cerebral palsy and a mild learning disability.

I share a house with 2 friends and I am supported by dimensions.

I love to laugh and have fun in everything I do!

I would like to join the representative body as I want to help other people with a learning disability have a louder, stronger voice so that you feel heard and that your views are listened to and respected in your everyday lives.

By representing you I will champion your rights so that you feel valued and supported to live your life your way.

I think I would be good at representing you as I am not afraid to

PEOPLE WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES

Speak up on behalf of others.

By sharing my life experiences as someone living with a learning disability, I understand how difficult day to day life can be sometimes, I will work hard for you so that it can be the best it can for you.

A vote for me means that your rights will be respected.

A vote for me means you will be heard and listened to.

Everyone has the right to be an individual and I will do my best to promote equality for people with a learning disability today and everyday

I would like to ask you to take a few minutes to consider voting for me to represent you on the LDE representative body.

Thank you!
