

Different housing options

Renting options

Rental options

Renting means that you will pay someone else to live in a building they own.

These could include:

Housing Association

You can rent a home from a Council or local housing association.

Voluntary or Charity Organisations

You can rent a home from a voluntary or charity organisation

Many voluntary organisations and charities have properties that they rent out.

Rental options

Some properties are for one person, and some are to share with other people.

3

You can rent a home from a private landlord or letting agent

This means paying money to a person who owns a property, so you can live there.

4

You can rent a home from a family member, friend or someone that you know

The Housing Guide was a collaboration of LDE, Housing LIN and Ace Anglia.

It was supported by a co-design group of self-advocates and families. The co-design group were Jo, Rachel, Danielle, Gary, Liz, and Kate.

Thanks to everyone who shared stories, gave us feedback, and let us include their work. Please do share feedback and comments to LDE.
