1 Who we are

Who we are

We are academics, people with learning disabilities, accessible information experts, and self-advocacy organisations.

Where we are from

We're from all over the UK. We have team members from...

4 What we will make

A Terms of Reference that can guide other teams on how to work together

A clear list of what stops people being included in research as participants and as leaders

Examples of how to do research better

5 What's next?

Keeping checking in with everyone regularly. Check people are happy with how it is going.

Propose ways to reduce barriers

Share examples of inclusive research

Share our Terms of Reference

Look at how we all worked together: what worked well, what did not work well

2 What we are doing

Finding the best ways to include people with learning disabilities in research design & leadership

Mapping barriers to inclusion: Finding out what stops people being included

Showing how research could be done better

3 How we are doing it

Being accessible and person centred

Supporting each other to understand

Asking everyone for their ideas

Supporting each other to ask questions and speak up
