

Making your own housing plan

About this document

We have tried to make this guide easy to use.

Blue Words

The words in blue are ones we think need explaining.

There is a section with a list that explains what blue words or phrases mean.

Making your own housing plan

Each person's decisions about where they live, who they live with and how they live their life will be different.

We know that not everyone will be able to get their ideal home.

But good information, and if possible, support from others, can help people make the best housing choice, looking at the options available to them now.

You might need to think about this again if your life changes.

Making your own housing plan

Remember that you can change where you live or how you are supported.

That might be because your relationship changes or you want to live nearer work or a family member.

You are deciding what is right for you now.

In this section there are some important steps to help you make a plan.

The Housing Guide was a collaboration of LDE, Housing LIN and Ace Anglia.

It was supported by a co-design group of self-advocates and families. The co-design group were Jo, Rachel, Danielle, Gary, Liz, and Kate.

Thanks to everyone who shared stories, gave us feedback, and let us include their work. Please do share feedback and comments to LDE.
